DEMON OF UNDOING

Andrea I. Alton. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Mass Market Paperback. 308 pages. Dimensions: 6.5in. x 4.0in. x 0.9in. The Imkaira called them Demons - Demons of Undoing. They brought dangerous new thoughts and inventions, ideas that could topple the rigid Imkairan society. Shocked by the harm they were causing, the humans withdrew. Hundreds of years later they are no more than legends. Fenobar, born with a crippled arm is allowed to live only by the grace of his father, the King of Clan Fen. An outcast all his life, he struggles to survive with honor in a world of warriors. Long ago, he chose the Demon, a mythical being, as his secret ally, his source of strength. Then one shows up in his hour of greatest need. Two young men, one human, one Imkaira, are fated to meet. WHEN IS A DEMON NOT A DEMON The Demon rubbed at his strange sharp nose with the back of one hand. I havent any more supernatural power than you have--really! Im a very ordinary kind of person. I cant change things, or make them go wrong. Demon, I have been with you for two hands of days, and in that time things have done nothing but go wrong. Like what The Axe was subject to raltmichak, we were chased to exhaustion by the Kaymath, we had to cross the Straits of Tyvai, we nearly drowned, we smashed the boat in the Mists of Tyvai, and now we are marooned on a tiny island with no way off. We saved the Axe from the raltmichak, which was never finished on it. We escaped from the Kaymath, we survived crossing the straits, we didnt drown, and the Mists of Tyvai provide us with water, replied the Demon, ticking the points off with one long finger....
